

MABAT אבט

An in-depth look into the personal experiences of college-aged Israelis

Join students from the Hebrew Language Program for an informal conversation with your Israeli peers

Come find out:

- Why are 18 – 21 year old Israelis NOT in college and what do they do during those years of their lives?
- What role does religion play in the lives of young Israelis today?
- What are the political, family, economic, and social issues that affect young Israelis?
- How do Israelis view American people and American culture?

Wednesday, November 30th

7:15 PM

Humanities Hall – Room 224

This event is organized by Professor Jordan Rosenfeld of the Foreign Language Department. This event is free and open to all members of the University community.
